

TRAUMA SENSITIVE SCHOOLS:

A New Perspective on Student Behavior and Learning

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING SERIES

The interactive Trauma Sensitive Schools professional learning curriculum leaves educators with a renewed commitment to reach some of the most vulnerable students and their families.

More than two thirds of children report exposure to at least one traumatic event by age 16.

Childhood trauma has potential to leave a lasting impact on learning and behavior, including overall functioning and well-being. By understanding how trauma impacts students and families, along with adopting a trauma-informed approach, educators can play a crucial role in mitigating both the short and long-term effects of trauma.
